The family of Mr. J. B. Williams were guests at the home of Mrs. Hunter Goatly Tuesday.

We are glad to Mrs. Mary Yancy as convalescent.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Henry Reed and extend condolence to the bereaved ones.

It seems that the boys of our commonly have been having tough luck for the past two weeks as some have been losing their hats, some turning over on their buggies, some having runaway scrapes, and worst of all it seems to me, is that some were unfortunate enough to have some candy stolen after being enough to win it, but possibly we will be more fortunate hereafter and here's hoping the tide will soon turn.

As it has been so dry the grass and grain are not thriving very much and most every one reports their tobacco beds in a bad condition as well as oats which are suffering immensely. A great deal of corn has been planted and some report it as already sprouted, but we fear that "Mr. cut worm" will feast heavily upon it as soon as it is sufficient size for him to do so, but undaunted by the large amount of them now every one is planting corn.

Rex Monroe 2063

Mahogany brown horse, 15.5 hands, foaled 1903 weight 1155 pounds.

Sire, REX McDONALD, 2036

1st dam Lena M. 1887, by Hercules 56

2nd dam Lou, by Sumpter Denmark 65

3rd dam Dan Dunt, of Dean's Copperbottom

4th dam Dunt, of Tom Hal

We believe this is the greatest set of show horses now standing in Kentucky, and under the hammer, in actual dollars he got out sold the set of any saddle stallion that ever stood in the State. In our show string last year he got, the object being yearlings, won 25 first premiums, 26 second premiums and twelve hundred and ninety-eight dollars and five cents ($1298.05). What horse colts have ever done that!

Weanlings by high as high as six hundred and forty-five dollars in hard cash under the hammer. His any son of Rex McDonald that had any sort of a chance failed to breed real show horses! Only one of his sons have had a chance in Kentucky. Rex Peavine, McDonald Chief and Rex Monroe.

Bourbon's Best 4095

Chestnut, foaled 1893, 15.5 hands high.

Sire, BOURBON CHIEF, 976

1st dam Judy Oliver 607, by Red Cloud 2197

2nd dam daughter of King 2036

3rd dam daughter of Sim's Clark Chief 2575

4th dam daughter of LeGrand 746

This horse is a very handsome individual and certainly there is no better bred chief horse living, but better than all this, he is meeting every requirement as a great breeder. His get are show horses and they bring the price. Bourbon Gay sold at 2 year old for $1,000; Happy Bourbon, a yearling, for $500; Arbutus Maid, a yearling, for $275; Browning Martin, a yearling, for $310; Loret, a suckling, for $225; Oxy Bridge, a suckling, for $300; Pancy Maiden, a suckling, for $210, and a number of other weanlings and yearlings him brought from $200 to $300. Bourbon's day was champion 3 year old show horse of Tennessee. April, a yearling by him was undefeated at Stringtown and Bardonia and was then shipped to Missouri, where he was shown a number of times and was undefeated. This horse and Rex Monroe are being bred to as good mares as there are in the State, both of our own and other peoples, and we expect to develop their produce and make a market for them.

Prevent Truth of "Plan" Story.

The surgeon which was caught in the Harlem river a few days ago and which weighed, according to the truth, but fishermen and those who assist in weighing it, just 406 pounds, would have found its way to the home of a prominent lawyer in New York if it had not been known to members of the Albany society who know this story. At one of the early dinners of the society, when matters Alabamas including Kansas Lot, "Pop" Sawyer, the Jug of Blood and "Nobby" De Forest were enlarged upon. Louis Stern told his neighbor about the size of surgeons he had seen at Marcellus and Thomas' markets when he was a boy, many of them weighing more than a hundred pounds. The story was listened to respectfully, but the guest blushed at its falseness by saying: "When I get another like that have it sent to me and I'll pay double its market value." The Harlem catch has secured him to withdraw the offer.

ARE YOUR EYES WEAK?

DO YOU Suffer With Headache?

Headache is only a reflex action of the eyes. Eye strain causes more headaches than all other causes combined. Many people are suffering with their heads and do not realize that the cause is a deficiency or weakness in the eyes. Some need glasses and not wear them, others wear them that do not suit them. Whichever your case may be, it will pay you to call and see me.

Special examinations are extended to those who have never succeeded in obtaining correct glasses for the eyes. I claim to be able to do more good for the eyes than the majority of opticians, and am fully and thoroughly prepared to prove that my glasses are right. Examination and advice FREE. Glasses recommended only when needed.

In this issue appears the announcement of the Hon. C. S.
Hill, as a Candidate for Circuit Judge of this Judicial District.
For the past five years Mr. Hill has been Commonwealth's Attorney of this district and we feel that the highest compen-ment we can pay him, as to the discharge of his duties in that office is that he has discharged them duties incumbent upon him, with out fear or favor, while he has made some few enemies, as every prosecuting officer does, yet the rank and file of the people realize that he has been discharging a sworn duty, and he has discharged it well. He is a polished gentleman, and a lawyer of ability, and if he should receive the nomination, you will make a strong opponent, and it would well make a good judge as he is on the square all the time.

Clean Up Days
Don't forget that April 25 and 26 are clean up days in Springfield. Everybody must do their part if Springfield is to keep in touch with our neighbor towns.

Good News
Judge Yankee received a notice from the State Board of Education a few days ago stating that on September 1st of this year will be permitted to stand without a raise. It will be remembered that last year we were given a ten per cent raise, which by hard work we succeeded in getting reduced to five.

Trey O' Hearts
The first installment of the serial picture show which will be held at the Walnut Street Theatre every Tuesday night was held on Friday night, April 23. There was a large crowd in attendance and the pictures were very interesting and it is expected that the series will be worth seeing and those who have read the story believe that there is something about the time.

Show At Opera House
We have not had many shows at the Opera House this season but our next Friday night, April 23, we will have what promises to be a real good one, when the Continental Lyceum bureau will present The Howard-Wade Kinsey Co. Co. Co. Co. Co. Co. Co. Co.
The entertainment will consist of operatic songs, solo, vocal and instrumental. It will be interesting to lovers of music and all others as well as you will find something to entertain you.

Elect Trustee
In the matter of R. H. Edelen bankrupt, at a meeting of the creditors held in Louisville a few days ago, Mr. Ben F. Sims of this county was elected Trustee, and Mr. G. L. Haydon, Jr. of Louisville, were appointed appraisers. The estate is a very large one, and there will be a large amount of business to be liquidated and wound up.

Call Of The Blood

Prof. J. T. O. Noy, of State University at Lexington, Ky., has written a drama on the story of the Book of Esther, entitled "The Call of the Blood," which has received favorable criticism from some of the ablest critics of the country, and they are universal in pronouncing it a liberty gem. It was produced by students of the College at the Lexington Theatre in Lexington April 14 to a large and appreciative audience. Miss Col-Clegg of Springfield played the role of Vashti and the Lexington Herald says of her "Her commanding figure and strong conception of her character brought new laurels to this young woman's feet. "In speaking of Prof. Noy's work the Herald says"

"Those who are familiar with the Book of Esther are interested in the work of Prof. Noy. In this instance, although he departed from the story in the unfolding of the drama and interpolated two strong characters to give it dramatic sequence and setting."

It is not the purpose here to with critical eye either adversely or otherwise Prof. Noy's work. Therefore, for the reason that when the author in this instance, struck out into new paths and created new dramatic promise to sustain his thought version he is even more to be commended for his literary daring in so well as for his literary daring in so much as to venture into the realm of the dramatic and create a new and more impressive imagery.

The lines in "The Call of the Blood" are gracefully written, sustained in style and diction and embellished throughout by the unquestioned genius of a fertile and gifted pen.
